MESSAGE FROM THE PASTOR

Without a doubt the theme of the Readings for today is clearly about the sanctity and the indissoluble nature of marriage between a man and a woman, who are free to marry and do so with the full knowledge and intent of a binding commitment. However, there is so much more to marriage than that, and we find this in the first sentence of the First Reading: "It is not good for human beings to be alone." All of humanity was created to live in relationship with God and with others. The desire to have companionship is part of our nature; we search for it, we long for it and are not fulfilled as loving people without it.

The First Reading is from the Book of Genesis (2:18-24). This passage is from the "second telling" of the creation story and focuses more on the human aspect of creation than on the inanimate. Because God made man and woman out of His divine love and His desire to share that love with His creation, He gave His human creations that same desire to live and share with one another. This is most solemnly demonstrated in marriage which, when lawfully contracted, is blessed by God and is binding for life.

The Responsorial Psalm is (128:1-6). Here, the Psalmist is counseling mankind on the virtues of a happy marriage and family life. This is God's desire, that mankind should live and be happy, and this can be accomplished for most of us in the marriage state. However, marriage, like any relationship, must be a joint effort with both parties working at it together for the mutual benefit of all involved. This takes a great deal of humility, patience, perseverance and, most of all, love.

The Second Reading is from the Letter to the Hebrews (2:9-11). The writer of this great Letter is telling us how Jesus Christ, the Son of God, came to earth to show us how to love through humility ("...being for a little while...less than the angels") and perseverance.

The Gospel Reading is taken from the Gospel of Mark (10:2-16). In this story, Jesus is being pulled into a verbal trap regarding the legality of divorce as practiced in that culture and time. Jesus reminds the Pharisees that it was so only because they were so stubborn, and this was not what God intended. God intended that marriage and family life should be the foundation of all human existence; and the more love that is put into a marriage, the more blessings will come from it. The harshness of Jesus' words, according to Mark, is because when two people come before God to pledge themselves in a marriage covenant, that commitment cannot be dissolved, except by death. Anyone who violates the commitment or does not fulfill the commitment is in serious trouble.

Our newspapers and magazines are full of stories of broken marriages or relationships that are not marriages at all and the unhappy results that come from them. This situation is now taken so lightly that there is little, if any, scandal associated with it. Nevertheless, for serious Catholics, marriage is still a serious commitment that can bring us great happiness or suffering depending on how we fulfill our part of the covenant/commitment. These Readings, therefore, challenge all married people to reflect on the success (or lack of success) of their marriages and how well they are fulfilling their commitment. And to those contemplating marriage, you are also challenged to reflect on the commitment you are about to make and to consider your willingness and ability to fulfill a binding promise based on love. Something to think about during your prayer time this week.

ADORATION CHAPEL

“Frequently, only silence can express my prayer. However, this Divine Guest of the tabernacle understands all, even the silence of a child’s soul filled with gratitude. When I am before the tabernacle, I can say only one thing to Our Lord: ‘My God, you know that I love you, and I feel my prayer does not tire Jesus’ ” ~St. Therese of Lisieux, Church Doctor, 1873-1897, France; Feast Day: October 1st

October is Respect Life Month: “These two things are intimately connected: reverence for the sacred Eucharist and reverence for human life where it is most vulnerable and defenseless.” ~Archbishop Salvatore J. Cordileone

Celebrate the gift of your Guardian Angel. Attend Mass and spend time before our Eucharistic Lord.
What a blessing for your Guardian Angel to be with you and Our Lord together. ~Guardian Angels Feast Day: October 2

Called by St. John Paul II “a perfect blend of humanness and holiness,”

Mother Guerin said of the Holy Eucharist, “Is there anything sweeter than to have a friend to whom we may at any hour confide our difficulties and our pain?” ~St. Theodore Guerin, Foundress of the Sisters of Providence, 1798-1856, France; Feast Day: October 3

“See the humility of God, brothers, and pour out your hearts before Him. Humble yourselves that you may be exalted by Him. Hold back nothing of yourselves that you may be exalted by Him. Hold back nothing of yourselves that He who gives Himself totally to you may receive you totally.” ~St. Francis of Assisi, Franciscan Founder, 1181-1226; Feast Day: October 4

“You wanted to stay with us, and so You left us Yourself in the Sacrament of the Altar and you opened wide Your mercy to us. You opened an inexhaustible spring of mercy for us giving us Your dearest possession, the Blood and Water that gushed forth from Your Heart.” ~St. Faustina, Divine Mercy in My Soul, 1747.

DIVINE MERCY MEDITATION - PART TWO OF CONFERENCE

Conference on Sacrifice and Prayer.

You must be annihilated, destroyed, living as if you were dead in the most secret depths of your being. You must be destroyed in that secret depth where the human eye has never penetrated; then will I find in you a pleasing sacrifice, a holocaust full of sweetness and fragrance. And great will be your power for whomever you intercede (Diary, 1767).

**The words of Jesus appear in boldface type*

My Prayer Response:

Lord Jesus, help me surrender to the depth of my being to You. I want to cross out my self-will like St. Faustina did (see Diary, 374) with a big X and do Your will as a living sacrifice pleasing to You (see Rom 12:1). Amen.

JESUS, I TRUST IN YOU!

PRO-LIFE THOUGHT OF THE WEEK FROM PROLIFECORNER.COM

Let us throw ourselves on the mercy of God, our Creator, & unceasingly ask Him for an end to abortion & euthanasia. Then & only then can we have peace in our hearts, in our families, & in the streets of America.

Think about this:

Facts about the development of a child from the moment of conception until birth need to be taught to everyone. If we would take time to learn the biological facts about life in the womb then, as God’s people, we could never tolerate abortion. No human authority, not even the state, can morally justify the killing of an innocent child. This tragic transformation of a crime into a “right” is characteristic of a collapsing civilization.

Lord, let us not be cowards; give us the courage & wisdom necessary to stand up & fight the evil of abortion & euthanasia today. Amen!

40 DAYS FOR LIFE - NOW TO 11/3

40 Days for Life is an internationally coordinated 40-day campaign that aims to end abortion locally through prayer & fasting, community outreach, & a peaceful all-day vigils in front of abortion businesses. We look forward to praying with you daily until Nov. 3rd. Visit www.40daysforlife.com for more info.
