MESSAGE FROM THE PASTOR

Although we are getting very close to the great and awesome day of Christmas, the readings for today give us some of both the highs and the lows in the life of Jesus Christ which serve to remind us that, although we are celebrating the birth of our Divine Savior which is a "high," there is a darker side that we must not forget. Likewise, when celebrating the birth of a new baby, which often causes us to think of many cute images, this particular baby is "...destined to be the rise and fall of many in Israel." (See Luke 2:34-35)

The First Reading is taken from the Book of the Prophet Micah (5:1-4a). The message of this prophet, who lived about the 8th century BC, is dark and foreboding. He is chastising the rulers of his day because of their evil ways and all of Israel because they are not following the ways of the God of Israel. However, in this passage he gives them a ray of hope through this prophesy concerning the restoration of Israel and the coming of "...One who is to be ruler in Israel." This was to be a great honor for this little village, Bethlehem; but it was also to be the village where Herod had the little innocent babies slaughtered. (See Matt: 2:6 and 16)

The Responsorial Psalm (80:2-3, 15-19) is a prayer that the people of the Prophet Micah's time should have prayed and taken seriously. Unfortunately, it was written much later and by a different group of people who were in a desperate period of history and truly called upon the Father, the "Shepherd of Israel," to "come to save us and protect what your right hand has planted." What a different tone! In this psalm, the writer uses the term "Son of Man" which Jesus used to refer to Himself rather than "Son of God" which any first-born Jewish male could claim to be. At the end they ask for "new Life" which, of course, the Christ Child did eventually bring through His death and resurrection.

The Second Reading is taken from the Letter to the Hebrews (10:5-10). In this passage, the writer is saying that Jesus quoted from Psalm 40:6-8 in referring to Himself as the Divine sin offering that needed to be offered, but only once for the forgiveness of all sin: past, current and future. He did it to fulfill the will of His Father on our behalf. In other words, the Father "...gave His only son that we might have life." In doing so, Jesus fulfilled the First covenant and established the New and Eternal Covenant. That is what we are celebrating at Christmas, the entry into this world of the "One who is to be ruler of the New Israel."

The Gospel Reading is taken from the Gospel of Luke (1:39-45). On a much lighter side, in this passage we have the beautiful scene of Mary, the Mother of Jesus, coming to visit and help her relative, Elizabeth. These two women are destined for great joy and much sorrow; but at this point all they can think about is the birth of each of their babies but under very unique circumstances for each of them. Elizabeth realizes that Mary is blessed with the privilege of carrying the Lord within her; and Mary knows that Elizabeth's pregnancy is for a much higher purpose than either of them could know at this point. So, obviously, the two women must have celebrated their good fortune and put aside for another day the sorrow that was to come. So let us celebrate with Mary and Elizabeth and the whole world; but let us also keep in mind that Christmas, the birth of Christ, is not "just for children." It is the gift of the Father, for all humanity.

Keeping that in mind, what is YOUR gift to Him?

Rev. Edward J. Smith

ADORATION CHAPEL

Merry Christmas, O Come Let Us Adore Him, our Eucharistic Savior

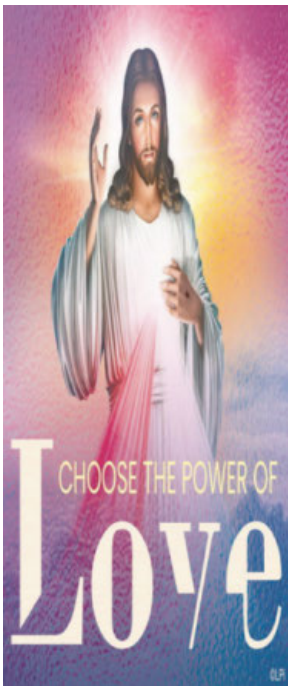

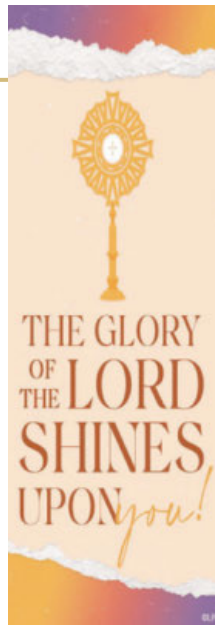

"In this midnight Mass...I shall see a crib on the altar and the sweet Babe with His two eyes filling with tears more precious than pearls. I will offer Him to God, His Father with His Mother's approval and will ask Him for you that He may ever be heart of your heart and the sole Beloved of your soul."

~St. Francis de Sales

The pangs of hunger, the parched thirst, the shivering cold, the damp wetness, the frightening darkness, the cry of the Babe in the manger of Bethlehem; in the manger of the Monstrance, in the manger of the Paten.

He says "Come to Me, It is really I. I can feed you, all of you, I can give you drink that you may never thirst again. I can warm the inner recesses of your soul. I can dry your tears and quell your fears. I can do anything and everything, I am who Am, your Lord and Savior and your Best Friend. I am the One who loves you, who died for you, who heals you, who binds you up and holds you in My arms. I am Wonderful, Counselor, Messiah, Christ the Lord. I desire to spend time with you. There are so many gifts that I yearn to give to you my dearest one. Come, come, come to Me."

~ 'The Christmas Yearning', Linda Bracy

DIVINE MERCY MEDITATION - PART 2: CONVENTS & CHURCHES

How can they sit on the promised throne of judgment to judge the world, when their guilt is greater than the guilt of the world? There is neither penance nor atonement. O heart, which received Me in the morning and at noon are all ablaze with hatred against Me, hatred of all sorts! O heart specially chosen by Me, were you chosen for this, to give Me more pain? (Diary, 1702).

When I tried to intercede for them, I could find nothing with which to excuse them and, being at the time unable to think of anything in their defense, my heart was seized with pain, and I wept bitterly. Then the Lord looked at me kindly and comforted me with these words: Do not cry. There are still a great number of souls who love Me very much, but My Heart desires to be loved by all and, because My love is great, that is why I warn and chastise them (Diary, 1703). *The words of Jesus appear in boldface type

My Prayer Response:

Lord Jesus, raise up many faithful people who love You with a great fervor!
Set many hearts on fire! Amen.

PRO-LIFE THOUGHT OF THE WEEK FROM PROLIFECORNER.COM

Let us throw ourselves on the mercy of God, our Creator, & unceasingly ask Him for an end to abortion & euthanasia. Then and only then can we have peace in our hearts, in our families, and in the streets of America.

Think about this:

Let us remember that the Christmas heart is a giving heart, a wide open heart that thinks of others first. The birth of the baby Jesus stands as the most significant event in all history, because it has meant the pouring into a sick world the healing medicine of love which has transformed all manner of hearts for almost two thousand years...Underneath all the bulging bundles is this beating Christmas heart.

Lord, let us not be cowards; give us the courage & wisdom necessary to stand up & fight the evil of abortion & euthanasia today. Amen!

PASTOR'S CHRISTMAS MESSAGE

Today the world celebrates one of the most important Holy Days and Holidays of the year. For weeks, everyone has been looking forward to this day with all kinds of emotions ranging from high expectations to deep depression. Even our church is highly decorated, with more people attending than almost any other day; but rather than commenting on the individual readings for this great day, which everyone should already know, I would like to offer the following:

"Are you ready for Christmas?" is an often heard greeting these days and many of us will immediately think about the gifts we have forgotten to buy, or the cards we should have sent and didn't or the invitations that we had to turn down because of other conflicts; but are you really ready for the visit of the Christ Child?

Remember:

"C" is for Christ! Without Him there would be no reason to celebrate.

"H" is for Holy! Are we prepared to meet and greet the Holy One of God?

"R" is for Royalty! After all, He is the "King of kings and the Lord of Lords."

"I" is for Incarnation! God's becoming Man to show us the way back home.

"S" is for Savior! The gift He holds out to us is Eternal Salvation.

"T" is for Time! Have you taken the time to see what Gift Jesus wants from you?

"M" is for Mary! How could we celebrate a divine birth without a Holy Mother?

"A" is for Adoration! Taking time during this season to worship the Son of God.

"S" is for Sacred! Let's keep this day holy, sacred, and sane.

Remember, God's gift to you is your life, your very being. Your gift to Him is what you do with it.
Just something to think about during your prayer time this week!

Merry Christmas, Everyone! ~Rev. Edward J. Smith & Staff
