MESSAGE FROM THE PASTOR

Last Sunday the Readings gave us some idea of how God revealed Himself through His Son, Jesus, beginning with His birth, baptism, and continuing through the Church. Today's readings continue this idea of revealing, along with the theme of marriage as a symbol of God's relationship with His Church. Let us see how these two themes come together.

The First Reading is from the Prophet Isaiah (62:1-5) where we hear the Prophet calling on his people to rise from their depression and be joyful. For many years after the Babylonian Exile ended, the Jewish people were without direction or motivation. The Prophet is trying to get them to see that only in their relationship with God can they be happy. He then goes on to encourage them to look to the future when God will make their land and people His "delight" and "espoused." This eventually came to be through Jesus Christ, and His Church, which was made available, first to the Jews who rejected it, then to the Gentiles who accepted it wholeheartedly.

In the Responsorial Psalm (96:1-10), the psalmist picks up the same theme of praising God for His many blessings and graces. In doing so he reveals the greatness of God and mankind's need to worship Him and be close to Him in all we do.

The Second Reading is from St. Paul's First Letter to the Corinthians (12:4-11). In this passage, Paul is pointing out to his followers how the Holy Spirit has given various talents (gifts) to mankind, each according to his abilities and role in God's Plan of Salvation. This is another way in which God has revealed Himself and has immersed Himself in His Church to build it up. We are that Church today, and each of us has been given a gift or talent that can be of use for the benefit of our neighbor. We should not be like the Jews in the first reading (so full of depression or lethargy or disinterest) that we do nothing to help ourselves or others.

In the Gospel Reading from the Gospel of John (2:1-11), we have the beautiful story of the "Marriage Feast at Cana." Within this story there are many symbols that reveal the greatness of God and His desire to share Himself with mankind. The presence of Jesus at this marriage, and His involvement to make it a success, is the reason marriage is to the level of a Sacrament. The abundance of wine, which is a spiritual symbol of life, is a foreshadowing of God's abundant love that transcends all our transgressions or shortcomings. Also, Mary's intercession on behalf of the bride and groom gives us the courage to ask her intercession on our behalf as well. Lastly, the presence of the "God-Man" at this marriage is symbolic of God's relationship with the Church. Christ is the bridegroom and we, the Church, are His bride.

Throughout the bible, "Marriage" and the "Wedding Banquet" are used as symbols of heaven and eternal life, because marriage is supposed to be a commitment of giving one's self to the beloved for the spiritual enrichment of both. God "gave His only Son so that we might have eternal life." Our "life" is God's gift to us. What we do with it is our gift to God. So, as we begin another year and make all kinds of resolutions, think about what you plan to give to God in this New Year.

Rev. Edward J. Smith

ADORATION CHAPEL

Day of Penance for Violations to the Dignity of the Human Person - January 22nd

“The Eucharist unites and strengthens us in our efforts to secure justice for the unborn and to create a culture wherein every human life is cherished, nurtured and protected from the moment of conception until natural death.”
~Archbishop William E. Lori, chairman of the U.S. Bishops Committee on Pro-Life Activities

St. Francis de Sales, Bishop, Doctor, France (1567-1622) - Feast Day: January 24th

“Between the mystery of the Eucharist and that of the Incarnation, there is only one difference: In the incarnation, we see the incarnate God in His own Person, and in the Eucharist, we see Him under a more hidden and obscure form. In both instances, it is the same God-Man who was born of the Virgin.” ~St. Francis de Sales

The Conversion of St. Paul, the Apostle, Turkey (died e. 64) - Feast Day: January 25th

“Like St. Paul, we can recognize that Jesus’ Presence in the Blessed Sacrament is an invisible gift that can transform our lives if we allow Him to do so. We can share our personal experiences of God’s peace through the sacrament with other people . . . [and] by reading about the Eucharist. And we can be thankful that we didn’t need to be struck blind to find out that God loves us and comes to us in the Blessed Sacrament at every Mass.” ~D. Buetner

St. John Bosco, Priest, Salesian Founder, Patron of Editors, Italy (1815-1888) - Feast Day: January 31st

“My dear ones, the visit to the Blessed Sacrament is an extremely necessary way to conquer the devil. Therefore, go often to visit Jesus and the devil will not come out victorious against you.” ~St. John Bosco

DIVINE MERCY MEDITATION - PART 4: WITH A SINFUL SOUL

Jesus: Child, speak no more of your misery; it is already forgotten. Listen, My child, to what I desire to tell you. Come close to My wounds and draw from the Fountain of Life whatever your heart desires. Drink copiously from the Fountain of Life and you will not weary on your journey. Look at the splendor of My mercy and do not fear the enemies of your salvation. Glorify My mercy (Diary, 1485).

**The words of Jesus appear in boldface type*

My Prayer Response:

Lord Jesus, I draw close to You in the Blessed Sacrament and drink from the Fountain of Life for strength on my journey. I glorify Your mercy. Amen.

JESUS, I TRUST IN YOU!

PRO-LIFE THOUGHT OF THE WEEK FROM PROLIFECORNER.COM

Even though Roe v Wade is no longer a federal law, we still face abortions every day.

However, due to the individual states deciding their own abortion regulations, abortions have thankfully decreased somewhat. We must continue to work and pray diligently to end abortion in our nation and save God’s beautiful unborn babies. It is our hope that these quotes will inspire you to share them and to join pro-life.

Continue to pray to end abortion.

Think about this:

“Not even one abortion per week is acceptable. Not one per month. Not one per year. Not one in our lifetime...The dignity of the human person begins at the moment of conception, not at birth. The dignity, as recognized by the signers of the Declaration of Independence, is bestowed by the Creator, and no one has the right to destroy innocent unborn life.” ~Archbishop Samuel Aquila

Lord, let us not be cowards; give us the courage & wisdom necessary to stand up & fight the evil of abortion & euthanasia today. Amen!
